

Singing the Scripture in November

Week of November 12, 2017

- Read the Hymn Text (one stanza at a time/each day of the week)
 - Read the corresponding Scripture readings for each text
 - Answer questions

1 – How does the scripture influence or relate to the text?

2 – What did I learn about God?

“After singing/reading this hymn, I know that God is

_____.”

3 – What is the message of this hymn?

4 – Why is this hymn meaningful?

5 – How can I use this hymn text or scripture in my life this week?

Hymn Information:

This hymn is based off of the Latin hymn “Urbs beata Ierusalem” – in our hymnal LSB 909 – Christ is Made the Sure Foundation. This text hymn is based on the last half of the Latin hymn focusing on God’s blessings to the church. The original first 4 stanzas focused on the vision of the heavenly Jerusalem.
