WELCOME VISITORS We have printed out our worship service to make it easier for all of us to follow. Hymns are found in the hymn section of the Lutheran Service Book or in Worship & Praise, the purple supplement. The service is also projected on the screen. Please visit our “Welcome Center” in the Narthex for additional information about Redeemer.

CELEBRATION WORSHIP TODAY - While we use newer and older songs in all our services, it is our custom to use a greater portion of newer songs in the later service on the second Sunday of each month.

OUR THEME FOR TODAY is “Restoring Relationship.” Relationships are an everyday part of life. Relationships bring joy but they are also a lot of work and can bring extreme heartache. Today we look to Genesis chapter 3 to learn about restoring relationships.

GREETINGS and ANNOUNCEMENTS (We welcome our fellow worshipers.)

(*) OPENING PRAYER

HYMN "This Is How We Know"

This is how we know
This is how we know what love is
Just one look at Your cross
And this is where we see
This is where we see how love works
For You surrendered Your all
And this is how we know
That You have loved us first
And this is where we chose
To love You in return

Chorus: For You so loved the world
That You gave Your only Son
Love amazing so divine
We will love You in return
For this life that You give
For this death that You have died
Love amazing so divine
We will love You in reply, Lord

Repeat from beginning

Chorus

And our love will be loud
Our love will be strong
Our love should be hands and feet
That serve You in this world
So let it stay true and let it endure
That You will be glorified worshipped and adored

For You so loved the world
That You gave Your only Son
Love amazing so divine
We will love You in return
For this life that You give
For this death that You have died
Love amazing so divine
We will love You in reply, Lord
Savior of the World.

King Jesus we love You for we have been loved (repeat 3 times)

We have been loved

(*) THE INVOCATION (Please stand.)

P: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

C: We have come to worship You, Father, who creates all life. We have come to worship You, Lord Jesus, our Savior, who won for us new life by the forgiveness of our sins. We have come to worship You, Holy Spirit, who made us alive in Christ to worship You and love our neighbor.

P: We worship You for all You are and for all You do and have done for us.

C: Grant that we may learn to love You more deeply, and to love others as You have loved us.

Redeemer Lutheran Church

869 7th Avenue SE
Rochester, MN 55904

P: Heavenly Father, we come before you as Your own dear children. We confess our sins to You, and we ask You to forgive us for Jesus's sake.

C: Heavenly Father, by nature we are dead in sin. In our sinfulness, we don't have the power to learn of Your love for us and to grow in faith toward You. In our sinfulness, we often fail to love others and ourselves as persons created in Your image and redeemed by Your Son. We often use others rather than supporting them in love. We are truly sorry for our sins.

P: Heavenly Father, we ask You to listen as we in our hearts confess our sins to You, especially those sins of lovelessness toward You and toward those around us. Hear each of us now. And forgive us for Jesus' sake.

(Silently tell God your sins. Be assured that He hears your personal confession.)

P: We have been blessed! God, our Heavenly Father, loves us and promises to forgive us. He sent His Son Jesus to take all our sins with Him when He died on the cross. God gives us new life in Christ through His resurrection from the dead. I have Good News for each of you! Our gracious God forgives all your sins for Jesus' sake.

(*) HYMN OF PRAISE

How deep the Father's love for us,
How vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure
How great the pain of searing loss,
The Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One
Bring many sons to glory.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

L: The Old Testament Reading for Third Sunday After Pentecost is from the third chapter of Genesis.

Redeemer Lutheran Church

869 7th Avenue SE
Rochester, MN 55904

⁸ Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?"

¹⁰ He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid."

¹¹ And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

¹² The man said, "The woman you put here with me —she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

¹³ Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

¹⁴ So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. ¹⁵ And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

Genesis 3:8-15 NIV

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

L: The Epistle reading is from the fourth and fifth chapters of 2 Corinthians.

¹³ It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken." Since we have that same spirit of faith, we also believe and therefore speak, ¹⁴ because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you to himself. ¹⁵ All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

¹⁶ Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. ¹⁸ So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

¹ For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.

2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1 NIV

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God. (Please stand to sing.)

(*) RESPONSE HYMN "Cornerstone"

My hope is built on nothing less,
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness.
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly trust in Jesus' Name. Repeat

Chorus: Christ alone. Cornerstone.
Weak made strong in the Savior's love.
Through the storm,
He is Lord. Lord of all.

(*) HOLY GOSPEL

L: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the third chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

²⁰ Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat. ²¹ When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

²² And the teachers of the law who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul! By the prince of demons he is driving out demons."

²³ So Jesus called them over to him and began to speak to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? ²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. ²⁶ And if Satan opposes himself and is divided, he cannot stand; his end has come. ²⁷ In fact, no one can enter a strong man's house without first tying him up. Then he can plunder the strong man's house. ²⁸ Truly I tell you, people can be forgiven all their sins and every slander they utter, ²⁹ but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; they are guilty of an eternal sin."

³⁰ He said this because they were saying, "He has an impure spirit."

³¹ Then Jesus' mother and brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call him. ³² A crowd was sitting around him, and they told him, "Your mother and brothers are outside looking for you."

³³ "Who are my mother and my brothers?" he asked.

³⁴ Then he looked at those seated in a circle around him and said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵ Whoever does God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

Mark 3:20-35 NIV

L: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ. (Please be seated.)

(*) NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And he will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

Redeemer Lutheran Church

869 7th Avenue SE
Rochester, MN 55904

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Health Notes

HOW DO FOOD ALLERGIES AFFECT REDEEMER?

Because there is an increase in the number of people experiencing allergies, the Redeemer Health Cabinet is looking to form a food policy concerning food allergies—especially in children. Should we make Redeemer a Nut Free Facility?

Food allergy is a serious and potentially life-threatening medical condition affecting up to 15 million Americans. One in every 13 children has a food allergy—that’s about 2 in every U.S. classroom. And every 3 minutes, a food allergy reaction sends someone to the emergency room.

Food allergy is among the diseases considered to be part of the Atopic March. Also known as Allergies March, this term refers to the progression of allergic diseases in a person’s life: eczema, food allergy, allergic rhinitis and asthma. Not everyone will follow this progression, or experience every condition.

The job of the body’s immune system is to identify and destroy germs (such as bacteria or viruses) that make you sick. A food allergy happens when your immune system overreacts to a harmless food protein—an allergen. In the U.S., the eight most common food allergens are milk, egg, peanut, tree nuts, soy, wheat, fish and shellfish.

All food allergies have one thing in common: They are potentially serious. Always take food allergies—and people who live with them seriously. Food allergy reactions can vary unpredictable from mild to severe. Mild food allergy reactions may involve only a few hives or minor abdominal pain. Some food allergy reactions progress to severe anaphylaxis with low blood pressure and loss of consciousness.
