Our Mission Statement: “As Christians based on the solid foundation of God’s Word, empowered by the Holy Spirit we strive to live out, lift up, and share our faith in Jesus Christ – welcoming all into our Family of Believers.”

Values:
Truth, Community Engagement, Family of Believers, Teaching, Healing/Caring, Joy, Prayer

WELCOME VISITORS We have printed out our worship service to make it easier for all of us to follow. Hymns are found in the hymn section of the Lutheran Service Book or in Worship & Praise, the purple supplement. The service is also projected on the screen. Please visit our “Welcome Center” in the Narthex for additional information about Redeemer.

OUR THEME FOR TODAY is “Jesus Rescues: The Sequel.” Last week we focused on how the rescue of Jesus is not just something for the final day but every day of our lives. This week in our sequel, we will focus on the purpose that Jesus’ rescue gives us as church, as parents, as friends, and community members!

SCRIPTURE READINGS

L: The Old Testament Lesson for Tenth Sunday After Pentecost is from Psalm 136.

¹ Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His love endures forever. ² Give thanks to the God of gods. His love endures forever. ³ Give thanks to the Lord of lords: His love endures forever. ⁴ to him who alone does great wonders, His love endures forever. ⁵ who by his understanding made the heavens, His love endures forever. ⁶ who spread out the earth upon the waters, His love endures forever. ⁷ who made the great lights — His love endures forever. ⁸ the sun to govern the day, His love endures forever. ⁹ the moon and stars to govern the night; His love endures forever. ²³ He remembered us in our low estate His love endures forever. ²⁴ and freed us from our enemies. His love endures forever. ²⁵ He gives food to every creature. His love endures forever. ²⁶ Give thanks to the God of heaven. His love endures forever.

Psalm 136:1-9, 23-26 NIV

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE READING

L: The Epistle Reading is from the third chapter of Ephesians.

¹⁴ For this reason I kneel before the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. ¹⁶ I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷ so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, ¹⁸ may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, ¹⁹ and to know this love that surpasses knowledge —that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, ²¹ to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Ephesians 3:14-21 NIV

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God. (Please stand to sing.)

(*) RESPONSE

(LSB 715, st. 1)

Jesus, Savior, pilot me over life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll, hiding rock and treach'rous shoal.
Chart and compass come from Thee. Jesus, Savior, pilot me.

(*) GOSPEL READING

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixth chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

⁴⁵ Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁶ After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

⁴⁷ Later that night, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on land. ⁴⁸ He saw the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. Shortly before dawn he went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them, ⁴⁹ but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought he was a ghost. They cried out, ⁵⁰ because they all saw him and were terrified.

Immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." ⁵¹ Then he climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were completely amazed, ⁵² for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

⁵³ When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. ⁵⁴ As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. ⁵⁵ They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶ And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside—they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

Mark 6:45-56 NIV

L: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ. (Please be seated.)

TRAVEL ANXIETY

Would you like to go somewhere special with the coming Labor Day weekend? It is the last holiday of the summer—but is it too difficult to think about—all that traffic!! All those people on the road!! Security lines at the airport!! 40 million people in the US have anxiety, but that is no reason to stay home. These tips can help you deal with anxiety, worry and fear when traveling.

Travel takes you out of your normal routine and comfort zone. Trains, planes, and long automobile rides can trigger fear and worry. That's enough to make you feel anxious even if you don't have a diagnosed anxiety disorder. For people who do have an anxiety disorder—it's the most common mental illness in the country, impacting 18% of the adult population according to the National Institute of Mental Health – travel is downright scary. But anxiety shouldn't be a reason to cancel your next vacation or business trip.

- Acknowledge anxiety head on. Think about what makes you anxious and write it down
- Address your fears in advance. Play out if-then scenarios so that you can work through how you'll handle things that make you uncomfortable. For example, if air travel makes you nervous, think through each step of the process, from getting to the airport and waiting in line at security to stepping on the plane and getting off at your destination. Each time you start to feel nervous in your walk-through, think of things you can do to make yourself more comfortable.
- Remind yourself that you can't control everything.
- Breathe. Take deep breaths and focus on your breathing.
- Accept that everything won't be perfect.

WHO BENEFITS FROM STEPHEN MINISTRY?

Everybody benefits from Stephen Ministry! Those receiving care from Stephen Ministers benefit because they receive prayer and support throughout the crisis they face. Stephen Ministers benefit through spiritual growth they experience from being involved in meaningful ministry. Our pastors benefit because caring ministry at Redeemer is expanded and fewer people will slip through the cracks. Most of all, you benefit from the knowledge that special care is available to you should you need it.

We have many needs for care in our congregation; people experiencing divorce, grief, a terminal illness, loss of job, relocation, an empty nest, retirement, loneliness and many other stresses and challenges. Often people with needs suffer silently or do not reach out for the care they need.

Redeemer has an active, busy Stephen Ministry; but we need help as well. Would you consider becoming a Stephen Minister? There will be more information on Stephen Ministry coming out this fall, but if you would like more information now, feel free to speak with a current Stephen Minister or contact either Pastor Koglin or Pastor Loos with your questions.
