WELCOME VISITORS We have printed out our worship service to make it easier for all of us to follow. Hymns are found in the hymn section of the Lutheran Service Book or in Worship & Praise, the purple supplement. The service is also projected on the screen. Please visit our “Welcome Center” in the Narthex for additional information about Redeemer.

61ST ANNUAL MUSIC SERVICE - We are thankful for all of our dedicated musicians who share their God-given talents throughout the year. On this day several of our groups are coming together to lead a good portion of our worship. Since this is a service of worship, we ask that you not applaud for individual groups. We will have a chance to say thanks to all at the end.

OUR THEME FOR TODAY: What does Good Shepherd Sunday, Music Sunday, and Mother’s Day all have in common? This weekend we are led to worship and praise our God and give Him thanks for the steadfast self-sacrificing love and most importantly, the steadfast, self-sacrificing love of Jesus, our Good Shepherd, who laid down His life for us.

"A Calypso Lord's Prayer"

"All I Have to Do Is Pray"

HYMN "You Never Let Go"

Even though I walk through the valley
Of the shadow of death,
Your perfect love is casting out fear,
And even when I'm caught in the middle
Of the storms of this life,
I won't turn back, I know You are near.

And I will fear no evil,
For my God is with me,
And if my God is with me,
Whom then shall I fear?
Whom then shall I fear?

Chorus: Oh no, You never let go,
Through the calm and through the storm.
Oh no, You never let go
In ev'ry high and ev'ry low.
Oh no, You never let go,
Lord, You never let go of me.

And I can see a light that is coming
For the heart that holds on,
A glorious light beyond all compare,
And there will be an end to these troubles
But until that day comes,
We'll live to know You here on the earth.

And I will fear no evil,
For my God is with me,
And if my God is with me,
Whom then shall I fear?
Whom then shall I fear? Chorus

Oh no, You never let go,
Through the calm and through the storm.
Oh no, You never let go,
In ev'ry high and ev'ry low.
Oh no, You never let go,
Lord, You never let go of me.
Lord, You never let go of me.

ANGELIC CHIMES "Rejoice Greatly"

+ God Speaks to Us +

SCRIPTURE READING

L: The First Reading is from Acts, chapter twenty.

¹⁷ From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church. ¹⁸ When they arrived, he said to them: "You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I came into the province of Asia. ¹⁹ I served the Lord with great humility and with tears and in the midst of severe testing by the plots of my Jewish opponents. ²⁰ You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. ²¹ I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

³² "Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³ I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. ³⁵ In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' " Acts 20:17-21, 32-35 NIV

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God. (Please stand.)

(*) RESPONSE

(LSB 709, st. 1)

The King of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine forever.

(*) HOLY GOSPEL

L: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the tenth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

Jesus said, ¹¹"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹² The hired hand is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. ¹³ The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. ¹⁴ "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me— ¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father —and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd. ¹⁷ The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life —only to take it up again. ¹⁸ No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father."

John 10:11-18 NIV

L: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

What is Stephen Ministry?

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2 NRSV)
Stephen Ministry is the one-to-one lay caring ministry that takes place in congregations that use the Stephen Series system. Stephen Ministry congregations equip and empower lay caregivers – called Stephen Ministers – to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting.

How Stephen Ministry Works

The best way to understand how Stephen Ministry works is to learn about the three groups of people involved in this ministry: Stephen Leaders, Stephen Ministers and care receivers. This week you are informed of what it is that Stephen Leaders are called and trained to do for our congregation.

Stephen Leaders establish and direct Stephen Ministry in the congregation. They:

- Build awareness of Stephen Ministry within the congregations and community
- Recruit and train Stephen Ministers
- Meet with potential care receivers to assess their needs if necessary. Most often, it will be one of our pastors who will fulfill this role.
- With the help of our pastors, Stephen Ministers are matched with a care receiver.
- Once the process of matching a Stephen Minister with a care receiver is complete, leaders will provide Stephen Ministers with ongoing supervision and continuing education.

People learn to serve as Stephen Leaders by attending a Leader's Training Course – a one-week conference that introduces the resources used to lead Stephen Ministry, develops key skills, and get people excited about this caring ministry. Most congregations begin with two to four Stephen Leaders, typically a pastor, possibly another church staff person, and one or more lay leaders.
